PINK

"Blush" or "rosé", whatever name you give them, they're usually made from red grapes that are only allowed to ferment a few days too short a time for the grape skins to impart a deeper colour to the wine. The result is a pink, fruity wine that's best served chilled & goes superbly with poultry, seafood, & spicy dishes.

CHENIN BLANC

This is one of our most versatile white varieties. Generally these wines are simple, soft crisp & fruity hints of tropical fruit, melon, apple, almonds, honey & floral notes can be sensed on the nose. Enjoy with seafood, spring rolls & salads; the more full-bodied wines go particularly well with chicken & spicier dishes.

SAUVIGNON BLANC

With naturally high acidity, Sauvignon Blanc is always tangy, tart, nervy, racy or zesty & this character pervades even sweet & dessert versions, keeping them from being cloying and sticky tasting. Sauvignon Blanc is probably the best dry white wine to accompany the greatest variety of foods.

WHITE BLENDS

By definition, blending wine simply means you are combining two or more wines to create a new one. To enhance aroma, improve the colour, add or minimize flavours and tastes, adjust the pH of a wine, lower or raise acidity, raise or lower alcohol levels, adjust the sweetness of a wine and to correct a wine with too much oak flavour.

CHARDONNAY

Rich is the word that best both describes Chardonnay & explains its popularity. Its aroma is distinct, yet delicate, difficult to characterize, easier to recognize. Chardonnay is usually dry, & goes best with poultry or seafood, like lobster or scallops. It can even go well with a light red meat dish. Good cheeses for Chardonnay include gruyere, provolone & brie.

LABORIE 205

lemon zest, pineapple, tropical fruit

DURBANVILLE HILLS 220

SEMI-SWEET

The sweet wine has a golden colour, is vigorous, fruity and fresh. Vouvray is made from Chenin Blanc grapes (Pineau blanc de la Loire). Sweet vouvray wines include Demi-Sec (semi-dry), Moelleux (sweet, botrytized) and Doux (sweetest, botrytized and heavy or syrup like).

“Age is just a number. It’s totally irrelevant unless, of course, you happen to be a bottle of wine.”

Joan Collins

RED

CABERNET SAUVIGNON

The outright favourite with any full flavoured red meat - steaks, grills, roasts & stews. Cabernet Sauvignon are dark & flavoursome. The new releases are easier to drink in their youth. Enjoy flavours of blackcurrant, blackberry, cedar, cigar box, lead pencils, green pepper & mint. Chocolate, tobacco & olives are very often also present.

PINOTAGE

The result of a cross between the Pinot Noir & Cinsault varieties. Pinotage was created in South Africa in 1925, by Stellenbosch University Professor A.I. Peroldt. Pinotage has a distinctive flavour, very fruity with an underlying taste frequently compared with banana. It can be drunk young, to maintain its fruity flavour. It also ages well, & the mellowing effect allows the wine to taste like a mature Bordeaux. Pinotage works well with stews & other rich dishes.

SHIRAZ / SYRAH

Shiraz & Syrah is a variety of grape used in wine. It got its name from Shiraz – the city of flowers, wine & poetry located in the heart of an ancient winemaking region. Shiraz forms intense wines, with deep violet, nearly black colour, chewy texture & richness, & often alcoholic strength, with aromas that tend to be more spicy than fruity.

SWARTLAND 195

MERLOT

Merlot is the name of a red grape which traces its ancestry to the biturica variety. This was brought to France in the first century. From this stock came many of the varieties we know today - Cabernet, Malbec. The "Merlot" grape was not named as a distinct variety until the 1800s. It is known as a Noble Bordeaux varietal. It is a perfect match for beef & other medium-heavy dishes.

RED BLENDS & OTHER VARIETIES

Some single varietals are made for blending: Winemakers will often make a barrel of Malbec, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot or other wines solely for the purpose of blending. As the grapes are being harvested, a winemaker determines what they think will be the best formula for a blend.
